The PG Department of English in association with CDC, commemorated the international day for the elimination of violence against women, with a talk "Orange the World: End Violence Against Women". Orange day campaign celebrates the international day for elimination of violence against women, as stipulated by the UN General Assembly. Orange, the bright and optimistic color is expected to represent a future free from violence against women and girls. The programme was conducted on 30th November 2021 from 1pm to 2pm in the college seminar hall. The welcome speech was delivered by Ms. Tinti Sebastian (English dept.) The chief guest of the programme was Adv. Gokul K.S. (advocate in the District and Sessions Court, Kottayam). The speaker vividly explained different rules and laws that favor women and girls. The speech covered all areas of the judiciary which support women - Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2006, Special Marriage Act 1954, Dowry Prohibition Act 1961, Maternity Benefit Act 1861, Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013 and so on. The detailed explanation regarding each act and law helped students to get awareness of their social system. The vote of thanks was given by Ms. Jyothi Lekshmi R. 65 students and 4 teachers attended the session.
