WOMEN'S FORUM ANNUAL REPORT

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-2020

Women's' Forum of MES College Erumely has been functioning to foster the talents of girl students and empower them through education. Women can excel in every field, and all they need is equal rights and freedom. Our focus is on empowering each other with unity. We foster girl's capabilities in all domains, promote girl's leadership, and always try to ensure that their full potential is realized and utilized.

Every year a general body meeting will be conducted, from which an executive body is formed, Monthly meetings are conducted. Orientation class for all girl students in various domain ,special induction programmes will be given for first years. Various Competitions and hands-on training are given every year.

During the Academic Year 2019 – 2020, a General Orientation Program was given to all the female students and various competitions were conducted . In January 2020, we will provide a 2day self-defence workshop for our girls, more than 150 students benefited from this.

A talk on Law for women was also provided by DYSP Kanjirappally to the girls, and an interactive session with the Police Officer was also there.
